Ciao bella Italia!

- Aperitivo, Prosecco and la dolce vita

To Italians, 'aperitivo' signifies an enjoyable after-work transition to evening downtime. It is a moment that epitomises the uniquely relaxed Italian way of life. The word aperitivo refers not only to the drink, the aperitif, but also to the custom of meeting up with friends early in the evening during the long months of summer for light alcoholic drinks and tasty titbits in the bars that line the lively piazzas.

This is when Italians celebrate in their understated, elegant way what they embody to the fullest: la dolce vita and ars vivendi, or the art of enjoying life. There is more to the aperitivo than pizza and pasta, bella figura and amore – it is an essential feature of Italian culture that serves to let people relax, unwind and get some distance from the daily grind.

And what could go better with this lifestyle than a tongue-tling, enlivening Prosecco? Both Frizzante and Spumante styles are characterized by their exquisite perlage and subtle fruitiness, making them a stimulating part of today's modern way of living.

Frizzante (semi-sparkling) and Spumante (sparkling) Proseccos differ in terms of their carbonation levels and production methods. With 1.5 to 2.5 bars of pressure in the bottle, a Frizzante has a lighter mousse. Frizzanti can also be recognised by the 'spago', the traditional string tied over the cork. Spumanti (sparkling) on the other hand have a more intense perlage like Champagne and a higher carbon dioxide pressure of at least 3 bar.

Located in the heart of Italy's Prosecco-producing region, the Mionetto SpA winery in recent years has played a pivotal role in introducing fresh ideas to aperitivo culture – alongside the mixed drinks of the Mionetto il line, especially the other frizzante and spumante wines from Mionetto also make perfect accompaniments, not just during aperitivo hours but during all those special moments when we celebrate life.

Dove c'è vita – Where there's life

A profile of Prosecco producer Mionetto S.p.A

Committed to the winemaking tradition of the Veneto region of Italy and with a keen sensibility for the zeitgeist – that is Mondo Mionetto. Founded more than 130 years ago in Valdobbiadene, the Mionetto winery has evolved to become a globally successful business that creates products that inspire lovers of exquisite premium Spumanti and modern trendsetters alike. "Design del Gusto" is the brand slogan, reflecting how Mionetto combines first-class taste with best quality and authentic origin to produce that feeling of the Italian way of life.

Whether at gallery openings, soirées or the bars of chic night-clubs – dove c'è vita – where there's life, there's Mionetto.

Where it all began: in the heart of the Prosecco wine-producing region

Grapes have been cultivated in the ideally situated Valdobbiadene area for centuries. Located in the heart of the Prosecco-producing region, the area is famous for its mild climate, which is one of the many ideal environmental conditions for the grapes that are turned into fruity-fresh wines. The hilly cultivation area, stretching for 47 kilometres from Conegliano to Valdobbiadene (in Veneto), is where the famous grapes are crafted into Frizzante and Spumante.

The word 'Prosecco' is now a controlled designation of origin, no longer being used since 2010 to designate the variety of grape originally known as 'Glera'. Thus only sparkling wines produced in the nine provinces of Treviso, Belluno, Venezia, Vicenza, Padova, Pordenone, Udine, Gorizia and Trieste are permitted to bear the designation 'Prosecco DOC'. And only products from the legally defined region around the villages of Valdobbiadene and Conegliano may be labelled DOCG Prosecco since the change in regulations.

A local winery with global appeal

Since 1887, Mionetto has inspired the Italian zest of life. Any time, any place, any occasion. With its elegant, fruity and refreshing flavor, Mionetto Prosecco transforms moments big and small into moments that truly matter. Mionetto, now a leading brand of premium frizzante and spumante, has a truly global fan base. According to the IWSR* (2020), Mionetto is the best-selling international* brand in the prosecco segment (0.75l bottle). It is exported to more than 70 countries and counts among the top brands in the USA, Italy, UK, and Germany.

Mionetto products have received an impressive number of international awards. In 2020, for example, the top-selling Mionetto Prosecco DOC Treviso Brut once again received a gold medal at the MUNDUS VINI Spring Tasting, a major wine competition. The 2019 Mionetto Valdobbiadene Prosecco DOCG Superiore di Cartizze Dry Luxury also won gold in 2020 at the MUNDUS VINI Summer Tasting. At the same competition Mionetto Valdobbiadene Prosecco DOCG Superiore Extra Dry Luxury was awarded a silver medal. In 2019 Mionetto MO Prosecco DOC Treviso Extra Dry received a gold medal and was also named “Best of Show Prosecco in Retail Markets” at the MUNDUS VINI Summer Tasting.

More than a century of experience, cutting-edge technology, the highest-quality base products, uncompromisingly stringent quality controls and a reverence for tradition coupled with a knack for reinterpreting it are the foundations of Mionetto’s success.

Prestige – Elegant Spumanti for Prosecco fans

The collection consists of four multi-faceted Spumanti that are great for every occasion – and in 2020 got a new, even more distinctive look: Vitality, emotion, strength... qualities embodied by the colour orange. For Mionetto it is the "Orange Choice", as orange is the striking label colour of Mionetto Prosecco DOC Treviso Brut, the brand's flagship product. In sharpening its brand image, Mionetto is leveraging the power of colour to enhance product recognition and further define the personality of the Prestige Collection.

One of the special features of Prosecco Rosé DOC is the longer secondary fermentation of at least 60 days. Mionetto Prosecco Rosé is extra dry, with an alcohol content of 11% vol. It makes the perfect refreshing aperitif and pairs beautifully with a variety of foods.

MO Premium – A distinctively exquisite bottle with equally exquisite contents

MO Prosecco Cartizze DOCG – For very special occasions

It represents Prosecco culture at its finest: Glera grapes are from the famous Cartizze region located in the heart of the Prosecco Superiore DOCG Valdobbiadene territory. Hints of apple and pear with notes of glazed almond characterise this Prosecco. From the intriguing MO designer bottle into the glasses for clinking at life’s special moments with the refreshing, elegant premium Spumante.

Spago Classico – For that wonderfully Italian tickle
